

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE OR TO LET NEW JERSEY.

REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION.

GRAND OPENING SALE OF Lake Lackawanna Bungalow Sites

Corporation of engineers, contractors and sixty laborers have been working nearly a year laying out and perfecting Lake Lackawanna.

Doctors, Lawyers, Newspaper Men and Bankers who have visited this lake have all congratulated us and claim it is the Most Beautiful, Natural Spot for a Summer City

they ever saw.

Lying in the Schooley Mountains

WITH AN UNBROKEN VIEW DOWN THE VALLEY FOR TWENTY MILES, WITH THE NEW CUT-OFF OF THE D. L. & W. R. R. COSTING THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS PASSING THROUGH THE PROPERTY. IT IS FOUR MILES FROM LAKE HOPATCONG AND THREE MILES AND A QUARTER FROM CRANBERRY LAKE. IT IS THE

Highest and Healthiest Spot

WITHIN 40 MILES OF NEW YORK, SOME PLOTS ARE CLEAR GROUND, SOME ARE WOODLAND. ALL THE GROUND IS RICH AND FERTILE.

Here Is an Opportunity. Buy 10,000 Square Feet,

BUILD A SUMMER BUNGALOW, WITH BOATING, BATHING AND FISHING. THREE MILE LAKE, RAILROAD AND PUBLIC ROADS RIGHT THROUGH THE PROPERTY. VISIT THIS PROPERTY ON OUR FREE SPECIAL TRAIN NEXT SUNDAY.

Let our representative explain to you how you may obtain

10,000 SQUARE FEET FOR $25.

No canvassing or soliciting. Pay $25 down on 10,000 square feet; balance, $225, may be paid at the rate of $10 per month. By our plan the monthly installments will be taken care of by us.

Write Reserving Tickets.

W. C. REEVES & CO., 124 E. 23d Street, New York City.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

ON THE HUDSON

"IN BEAUTIFUL WESTCHESTER."

If you are planning a home out of, and having it convenient for the daily trip to the city, 15 minutes by the new electric trolley, you will be interested in the house we have completed. Two solid concrete houses, 11 and 12 rooms, low sloping roof lines, large old-fashioned fireplaces and window seats, heavy beamed ceilings, large living rooms—22x26 and 28x36, two sets of electric lights, two sets of radiators, one 11x12 feet to the south and River, and each has a large open pergola in addition. Both have uninterrupted River views of UPWARD OF 25 MILES in addition to extensive back grounds.

Or you may be specially interested in a plot of 2 to 30 acres in such a location for your own home building. It is a part of an estate that is proving a genuine success divided and is now selling at prices ranging from $1,000 to $10,000. There is SOMETHING DIFFERENT IN THE HOUSES WHICH WILL ATTRACT MANY PEOPLE OF LITERARY AND ARTISTIC CALLINGS. It overlooks the many beautiful estates that lie in and around Scarborough, Phillips Manor, Tarrytown, Irvington, Pocantico, etc. Send for our illustrated and historical booklet, "The Homes on the Hudson," also for "House Leaflets."

THE KITCHAWAN HILLS ESTATE, Croton-on-the-Hudson, New York.

How Fame Was

Thrust Upon

Mr. Anderson

PROVED SPEEDY RUNNER

Was Hastily Groomed for Race with James A. Tawney and Won Coveted Prize.

He awoke one morning to find himself famous."

It develops that Lord Byron had no monopoly on this get-famous-quick stunt.

The English poet had nothing on Sidney Anderson, extremely plain American and a lawyer of Lanesboro, 1st Congress District, Minnesota, who defeated Congressman Tawney the other day for the Republican nomination in that district.

Sidney struggled along for more than half of three score years without stirring a ripple on the placid bosom of the national waters—at least they were placid most of the time so far as Sidney could see. He plodded along, keeping himself mighty busy, just biding his time. This biding business was neither enjoyable nor profitable, but it helped to fill in while working on a farm, following a threshing crew, picking up crumbs of wisdom in a high school, going to war and studying law.

He awoke one morning to find himself famous."

It develops that Lord Byron had no monopoly on this get-famous-quick stunt.

The English poet had nothing on Sidney Anderson, extremely plain American and a lawyer of Lanesboro, 1st Congress District, Minnesota, who defeated Congressman Tawney the other day for the Republican nomination in that district.

Sidney struggled along for more than half of three score years without stirring a ripple on the placid bosom of the national waters—at least they were placid most of the time so far as Sidney could see. He plodded along, keeping himself mighty busy, just biding his time. This biding business was neither enjoyable nor profitable, but it helped to fill in while working on a farm, following a threshing crew, picking up crumbs of wisdom in a high school, going to war and studying law.

He awoke one morning to find himself famous."

It develops that Lord Byron had no monopoly on this get-famous-quick stunt.

The English poet had nothing on Sidney Anderson, extremely plain American and a lawyer of Lanesboro, 1st Congress District, Minnesota, who defeated Congressman Tawney the other day for the Republican nomination in that district.

Sidney struggled along for more than half of three score years without stirring a ripple on the placid bosom of the national waters—at least they were placid most of the time so far as Sidney could see. He plodded along, keeping himself mighty busy, just biding his time. This biding business was neither enjoyable nor profitable, but it helped to fill in while working on a farm, following a threshing crew, picking up crumbs of wisdom in a high school, going to war and studying law.

He awoke one morning to find himself famous."

It develops that Lord Byron had no monopoly on this get-famous-quick stunt.

The English poet had nothing on Sidney Anderson, extremely plain American and a lawyer of Lanesboro, 1st Congress District, Minnesota, who defeated Congressman Tawney the other day for the Republican nomination in that district.

Sidney struggled along for more than half of three score years without stirring a ripple on the placid bosom of the national waters—at least they were placid most of the time so far as Sidney could see. He plodded along, keeping himself mighty busy, just biding his time. This biding business was neither enjoyable nor profitable, but it helped to fill in while working on a farm, following a threshing crew, picking up crumbs of wisdom in a high school, going to war and studying law.

He awoke one morning to find himself famous."

It develops that Lord Byron had no monopoly on this get-famous-quick stunt.

The English poet had nothing on Sidney Anderson, extremely plain American and a lawyer of Lanesboro, 1st Congress District, Minnesota, who defeated Congressman Tawney the other day for the Republican nomination in that district.

Sidney struggled along for more than half of three score years without stirring a ripple on the placid bosom of the national waters—at least they were placid most of the time so far as Sidney could see. He plodded along, keeping himself mighty busy, just biding his time. This biding business was neither enjoyable nor profitable, but it helped to fill in while working on a farm, following a threshing crew, picking up crumbs of wisdom in a high school, going to war and studying law.

He awoke one morning to find himself famous."

It develops that Lord Byron had no monopoly on this get-famous-quick stunt.

The English poet had nothing on Sidney Anderson, extremely plain American and a lawyer of Lanesboro, 1st Congress District, Minnesota, who defeated Congressman Tawney the other day for the Republican nomination in that district.

Sidney struggled along for more than half of three score years without stirring a ripple on the placid bosom of the national waters—at least they were placid most of the time so far as Sidney could see. He plodded along, keeping himself mighty busy, just biding his time. This biding business was neither enjoyable nor profitable, but it helped to fill in while working on a farm, following a threshing crew, picking up crumbs of wisdom in a high school, going to war and studying law.

He awoke one morning to find himself famous."

It develops that Lord Byron had no monopoly on this get-famous-quick stunt.

The English poet had nothing on Sidney Anderson, extremely plain American and a lawyer of Lanesboro, 1st Congress District, Minnesota, who defeated Congressman Tawney the other day for the Republican nomination in that district.

Sidney struggled along for more than half of three score years without stirring a ripple on the placid bosom of the national waters—at least they were placid most of the time so far as Sidney could see. He plodded along, keeping himself mighty busy, just biding his time. This biding business was neither enjoyable nor profitable, but it helped to fill in while working on a farm, following a threshing crew, picking up crumbs of wisdom in a high school, going to war and studying law.

He awoke one morning to find himself famous."

It develops that Lord Byron had no monopoly on this get-famous-quick stunt.

The English poet had nothing on Sidney Anderson, extremely plain American and a lawyer of Lanesboro, 1st Congress District, Minnesota, who defeated Congressman Tawney the other day for the Republican nomination in that district.

Sidney struggled along for more than half of three score years without stirring a ripple on the placid bosom of the national waters—at least they were placid most of the time so far as Sidney could see. He plodded along, keeping himself mighty busy, just biding his time. This biding business was neither enjoyable nor profitable, but it helped to fill in while working on a farm, following a threshing crew, picking up crumbs of wisdom in a high school, going to war and studying law.

He awoke one morning to find himself famous."

It develops that Lord Byron had no monopoly on this get-famous-quick stunt.

The English poet had nothing on Sidney Anderson, extremely plain American and a lawyer of Lanesboro, 1st Congress District, Minnesota, who defeated Congressman Tawney the other day for the Republican nomination in that district.

Sidney struggled along for more than half of three score years without stirring a ripple on the placid bosom of the national waters—at least they were placid most of the time so far as Sidney could see. He plodded along, keeping himself mighty busy, just biding his time. This biding business was neither enjoyable nor profitable, but it helped to fill in while working on a farm, following a threshing crew, picking up crumbs of wisdom in a high school, going to war and studying law.

He awoke one morning to find himself famous."

It develops that Lord Byron had no monopoly on this get-famous-quick stunt.

The English poet had nothing on Sidney Anderson, extremely plain American and a lawyer of Lanesboro, 1st Congress District, Minnesota, who defeated Congressman Tawney the other day for the Republican nomination in that district.

Sidney struggled along for more than half of three score years without stirring a ripple on the placid bosom of the national waters—at least they were placid most of the time so far as Sidney could see. He plodded along, keeping himself mighty busy, just biding his time. This biding business was neither enjoyable nor profitable, but it helped to fill in while working on a farm, following a threshing crew, picking up crumbs of wisdom in a high school, going to war and studying law.

He awoke one morning to find himself famous."

It develops that Lord Byron had no monopoly on this get-famous-quick stunt.

The English poet had nothing on Sidney Anderson, extremely plain American and a lawyer of Lanesboro, 1st Congress District, Minnesota, who defeated Congressman Tawney the other day for the Republican nomination in that district.

Sidney struggled along for more than half of three score years without stirring a ripple on the placid bosom of the national waters—at least they were placid most of the time so far as Sidney could see. He plodded along, keeping himself mighty busy, just biding his time. This biding business was neither enjoyable nor profitable, but it helped to fill in while working on a farm, following a threshing crew, picking up crumbs of wisdom in a high school, going to war and studying law.

He awoke one morning to find himself famous."

It develops that Lord Byron had no monopoly on this get-famous-quick stunt.

The English poet had nothing on Sidney Anderson, extremely plain American and a lawyer of Lanesboro, 1st Congress District, Minnesota, who defeated Congressman Tawney the other day for the Republican nomination in that district.

Sidney struggled along for more than half of three score years without stirring a ripple on the placid bosom of the national waters—at least they were placid most of the time so far as Sidney could see. He plodded along, keeping himself mighty busy, just biding his time. This biding business was neither enjoyable nor profitable, but it helped to fill in while working on a farm, following a threshing crew, picking up crumbs of wisdom in a high school, going to war and studying law.

He awoke one morning to find himself famous."

It develops that Lord Byron had no monopoly on this get-famous-quick stunt.

The English poet had nothing on Sidney Anderson, extremely plain American and a lawyer of Lanesboro, 1st Congress District, Minnesota, who defeated Congressman Tawney the other day for the Republican nomination in that district.

Sidney struggled along for more than half of three score years without stirring a ripple on the placid bosom of the national waters—at least they were placid most of the time so far as Sidney could see. He plodded along, keeping himself mighty busy, just biding his time. This biding business was neither enjoyable nor profitable, but it helped to fill in while working on a farm, following a threshing crew, picking up crumbs of wisdom in a high school, going to war and studying law.

He awoke one morning to find himself famous."

It develops that Lord Byron had no monopoly on this get-famous-quick stunt.

The English poet had nothing on Sidney Anderson, extremely plain American and a lawyer of Lanesboro, 1st Congress District, Minnesota, who defeated Congressman Tawney the other day for the Republican nomination in that district.

Sidney struggled along for more than half of three score years without stirring a ripple on the placid bosom of the national waters—at least they were placid most of the time so far as Sidney could see. He plodded along, keeping himself mighty busy, just biding his time. This biding business was neither enjoyable nor profitable, but it helped to fill in while working on a farm, following a threshing crew, picking up crumbs of wisdom in a high school, going to war and studying law.

He awoke one morning to find himself famous."

It develops that Lord Byron had no monopoly on this get-famous-quick stunt.

The English poet had nothing on Sidney Anderson, extremely plain American and a lawyer of Lanesboro, 1st Congress District, Minnesota, who defeated Congressman Tawney the other day for the Republican nomination in that district.

Sidney struggled along for more than half of three score years without stirring a ripple on the placid bosom of the national waters—at least they were placid most of the time so far as Sidney could see. He plodded along, keeping himself mighty busy, just biding his time. This biding business was neither enjoyable nor profitable, but it helped to fill in while working on a farm, following a threshing crew, picking up crumbs of wisdom in a high school, going to war and studying law.

He awoke one morning to find himself famous."

It develops that Lord Byron had no monopoly on this get-famous-quick stunt.

The English poet had nothing on Sidney Anderson, extremely plain American and a lawyer of Lanesboro, 1st Congress District, Minnesota, who defeated Congressman Tawney the other day for the Republican nomination in that district.

Sidney struggled along for more than half of three score years without stirring a ripple on the placid bosom of the national waters—at least they were placid most of the time so far as Sidney could see. He plodded along, keeping himself mighty busy, just biding his time. This biding business was neither enjoyable nor profitable, but it helped to fill in while working on a farm, following a threshing crew, picking up crumbs of wisdom in a high school, going to war and studying law.

He awoke one morning to find himself famous."

It develops that Lord Byron had no monopoly on this get-famous-quick stunt.

The English poet had nothing on Sidney Anderson, extremely plain American and a lawyer of Lanesboro, 1st Congress District, Minnesota, who defeated Congressman Tawney the other day for the Republican nomination in that district.

Sidney struggled along for more than half of three score years without stirring a ripple on the placid bosom of the national waters—at least they were placid most of the time so far as Sidney could see. He plodded along, keeping himself mighty busy, just biding his time. This biding business was neither enjoyable nor profitable, but it helped to fill in while working on a farm, following a threshing crew, picking up crumbs of wisdom in a high school, going to war and studying law.

He awoke one morning to find himself famous."

It develops that Lord Byron had no monopoly on this get-famous-quick stunt.